

2021 LIBIN CARDIOVASCULAR INSTITUTE TINE HAWORTH RESEARCH DAY ABSTRACT SUBMISSION & POSTER PRESENTATION GUIDELINES

Any trainee (clinician fellow, postdoctoral fellow, graduate student, undergraduate student) conducting cardiovascular research (clinical or basic) may participate in the Oral Presentations. Abstracts will be accepted from April 12 through to April 26, 2021 as space allows. Please note that presentation spaces are limited this year due to the condensed virtual format.

The below three NEW presentation styles are available this year:

Short Oral Presentations – Present your research in a breakout room to a subgroup of attendees. Presenters will be given three minutes with a maximum of five slides. There will be an additional two minutes for questions. All abstracts will be considered for this category.

Scientific Talks – Present your research to all attendees at the Tine Haworth Cardiovascular Research Day. Presentations will be eight minutes followed by two minutes for questions.

TED-Style Talks – Present a high-level overview of your research to all attendees at the Tine Haworth Cardiovascular Research Day in this TED-Style talk. Presenters will be given five minutes with a maximum of two slides. The Libin Institute has set up a coaching session with an experienced TED Talk speaker on May 26th at 1:30pm. Presenters must attend this session to be eligible to participate.

Abstract Submission

Trainees may only submit one abstract as first author this year, due to a limited number of presentation spaces. Trainees must be present during judging on June 15, 2021 to be eligible for the $200 award in their category. Trainees from outside of the Libin Cardiovascular Institute who conduct cardiovascular or vascular research are welcome to submit an abstract and participate in this event. Submission Deadline: April 26, 2021

- Keep your abstract to 200 words or less or it will be returned for revision.
- Your abstract should reflect your research efforts as first author.
- Abstracts cannot be edited/modified once submitted.
- Scientific Talks & TED-Style Talks will be selected from abstracts submitted for this part of the agenda. Please indicate on your registration form that you would like your abstract considered for a Scientific Talks or TED-Style Talks, as a limited number of presentation spaces are available for each category.

Short Oral Presentations

Short Oral Presentations will be judged on three criteria by two judges. Average score determines your rank in your trainee category:

SHORT ORAL PRESENTATIONS JUDGING SCORE CARD:

Ranking (1 = poor; 2 = satisfactory; 3 = good; 4 = very good; 5 = excellent) (Total possible score = 5)

PowerPoint Content: ____ /5 Visual Presentation: ____ /5 Oral Presentation: ____ /5

Total out of 15: _____

- Presenters will be given three minutes for their presentation and two minutes for questions.
- You may use a maximum of five slides.
- Presenters will be supplied with a Libin PowerPoint template that must be used. Please limit PowerPoint animations within your slides.
- All slides must be submitted to the Libin Operations Office (megan.smith3@ucalgary.ca) by 4 pm on June 7, 2021. No revisions will be accepted after submission.
- Presenters will be assigned presentation order numbers before June 15.

Scientific Talks

Scientific Talks will be judged on three criteria by two judges. Average score determines your rank in your trainee category:

SCIENTIFIC TALKS JUDGING SCORE CARD:

Ranking (1 = poor; 2 = satisfactory; 3 = good; 4 = very good; 5 = excellent) (Total possible score = 5)

Visual Presentation: ____ /5 Oral Presentation: ____ /5 Q&A: ____ /5

Total out of 15: _____

- Presenters will be given eight minutes for their presentation and two minutes for questions.
- There is no limit to number of slides that can be used. Method and results should be clearly outlined.
- Presenters will be supplied with a Libin PowerPoint template that must be used. Please limit PowerPoint animations within your slides.
- All slides must be submitted to the Libin Operations Office (megan.smith3@ucalgary.ca) by 4 pm on June 7, 2021. No revisions will be accepted once submitted.
- Presenters will be assigned presentation order numbers before June 15.

TED-Style Talks

TED-Style Talks will be judged on three criteria by two judges. Winner will be chosen by consensus:

TED-STYLE TALKS JUDGING SCORE CARD:

Ranking (1 = poor; 2 = satisfactory; 3 = good; 4 = very good; 5 = excellent) (Total possible score = 5)

PowerPoint Content: _____ /5 Visual Presentation: _____ /5 TED-Style Oral Presentation: _____ /5

Total out of 15: _____

- Presenters will be given five minutes for their presentation. There will be no question period.
- As this talk is meant for a broad audience, we ask that you present limited or no data.
- The Libin Institute has set up a coaching session with an experienced TED Talk speaker on May 26th at 1:30pm. Presenters must attend this session to be eligible to participate.
- You may use a maximum of two slides.
- Presenters will be supplied with a Libin PowerPoint template that must be used. Please limit PowerPoint animations within your slides.
- All slides must be submitted to the Libin Operations Office (megan.smith3@ucalgary.ca) by 4 pm on June 7, 2021. No revisions will be accepted once submitted.
- Presenters will be assigned presentation order numbers before June 15.

There are a total of nine award categories: Undergraduate Trainees, MSc Trainees, PhD Trainees, Clinical Trainees, Postdoctoral Fellows, Scientific Talks, TED-Style Talks, and, new this year, two awards for excellence in incorporating Sex and Gender in Research (sponsored by the Women's Cardiovascular Health Initiative).

The new Sex and Gender awards are open to all trainee categories, and include one award for the Short Oral Presentation, and one award for the abstract that best articulates and incorporates sex and gender in their research design, analysis, and interpretation. One winner will be selected from each category.

Questions regarding abstract submission and/or poster presentation may be directed to megan.smith3@ucalgary.ca.