

LIBIN CARDIOVASCULAR INSTITUTE (LCI) PUBLICATION AWARDS
DEADLINE: Monday, March 3, 2025

The Libin Cardiovascular Institute (LCI) offers awards to recognize trainees' publication successes.

The LCI Publication Awards are designed to recognize and reward trainees at all levels for quality cardiovascular research. All trainee first-authored papers published in peer-reviewed journals are eligible for the award.

AWARD: $100

TERMS OF REFERENCE

- Trainee must be the first author of an original research article published in a recognized, peer-reviewed journal in the 2024 calendar year. Papers published before or after 2024 are not eligible. Reviews are not eligible.
- Articles that meet SAGER Guidelines are eligible for LCI Sex & Gender Publication Awards, funded by the LCI's Women's Cardiovascular Health Initiative. The SAGER Guidelines are a guide for reporting sex and gender information in study design, data analysis, results, and interpretations of findings.
- Paper must have the Libin Cardiovascular Institute listed as an affiliation.
- Trainee must be a full-time postdoctoral scholar, graduate (MSc and PhD) or undergraduate student in good standing at the time of publication.
- ALL trainees must have a supervisor who is a full member of the Libin Cardiovascular Institute.
- This award can only be received once per trainee per annual competition.
- If there are more applications than available awards, applications will be ranked and awarded according to the impact of the research.
- Trainees may submit more than one publication; however, each trainee with multiple submitted publications will only be eligible to receive a maximum of one LCI Publication Award and one LCI Sex & Gender Publication Award. An individual publication can be considered for both awards, but can only win one of the awards.

APPLICATION PROCESS

- Applicants should complete the online application form.

Submit applications by Monday, March 3, 2025, to libin@ucalgary.ca

For general questions about the LCI Publication Awards, please contact libin@ucalgary.ca.

Applications will be evaluated for eligibility by the Libin Cardiovascular Institute's Education Director, and if necessary, ranked to determine recipients. In addition to a $100 award, successful applicants will have their publications recognized in the Libin Buzz.
